

SARAJEVO SIGHTS

1. The Latin Bridge

Just outside the Old Town Bašaršija area is the famous Latin Bridge, which was the site of the infamous assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, the trigger event that start World War One. The exact site is marked by a small plaque attached to the Sarajevo City Museum.

Price: 3KM

2. The Old Town Bašaršija

Bašaršija is in the heart of Sarajevo Old Town. Make sure you check out the old craft stores and see some of the crafts of old that live on. You can also stop at one of the many restaurants in Old Town Bašaršija and eat burek (also: börek – filo pastry wrapped around meat, cheese, spinach or potatoes – 1.5 Euros each) or ćevapi (a kebab with minced meat – between 1.5 and 5 Euros).

3. Bursa Bezistan

The six-domed Bursa Bezistan was originally a silk-trading bazaar. Today it's a small museum with bite-sized overviews of the city's history and a compelling model of Sarajevo as it looked in 1878.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

4. History Museum

More than half of the small but engrossing History Museum 'non-ideologically' charts the course of the 1990s conflict. Affecting personal exhibits include examples of food aid, DIY guns, stacks of Monopoly-style 1990s dinars and a makeshift siege-time 'home'. Directly behind, the amusingly tongue-in-cheek Tito Cafe has storm trooper-helmet lampshades and garden seating surrounded by WWII artillery pieces.

Admission: 4 KM

Open: Monday-Sunday

5. Vratnik

The once-vast Vratnik Citadel was built in the 1720s and reinforced in 1816. Not much remains but there are superb views from the grassy-topped Yellow Bastion. Minibus 55 gets you reasonably close.

• Power supply

- Voltage 220 V ~

- Frequency 50 Hz

• Water

According to the City of Sarajevo, the water supply system delivers clear and drinkable water.
